An Old Sale Bill.

An exchange says they were handed a copy of an old sale bill that was printed in Missouri sixty-two years ago. There are some items mentioned that would draw a crowd even to this day. It reads as follows:

"State of Missouri, County of Pike. To whom it may concern: The undersigned will, September 28, 1848, sell at public outcry for cash, on premises where Cook creek crosses on Missouri road, the following chattels to-wit: Six yoke of oxen with yoke and chain, two wagons with beds, four buck niggers, three nigger wenchies, three nigger boys, five prairie plows, 25 steel traps, one barrel pickled cabbage, one hoghead of tobacco, one lot of nigger hoes, a spinning wheel, one loom, three fox hounds, a lot of mink, coon and skunk hides, and a lot of other articles. I am going to California. FREE—Head cheese, apples and hard cider.

The Candy With Class.

THEATRICAL.

"THE ROSARY"

"The Rosary", Rowland and Clifford's theatrical success, which will be seen at the Paris Grand, Monday, September 9. The story is interestingly told, and a cast comprising Harry Nelson, Virginia Lewis, Mabel Thorn, Elsie Graham, Harry Walker, Ritchie Sowaal and George J. Clark with scenic effects that are brilliant. The production is well worth attending.

HOWE'S PICTURES OF SUMPTUOUS VERSAILLES.

Views of entrancing beauty are promised by Lyman H. Howe in his new program at the Paris Grand, on Tuesday, Sept. 10. One series consists of a magnificent reproduction of the historic palace of Versailles, both of the exterior and interior, the parks and marvelous fountains in play. The famous Gallery of Mirrors, the bedroom of Louis XIV, also Louis XV's study and cloak room, will be revealed. The scenes are so perfect photographically and at the same time reproduced so accurately in the myriad tints of nature that the eye and brain accept them as reality, even without the excellent mechanical, musical and vocal effects that accompany them for the purpose of conveying conviction through the ear also.

Kentucky Jailers Elect.

At the sixth annual session of the Kentucky Jailers Association held in Lexington this week all of the old officers were re-elected as follows:

President, W. S. Fitzgerald, Boyle county; first vice president, W. T. Ballinger, Fayette county; second vice president, John W. Eiter, Mason county; third vice president, E. J. Taylor, Oldham county; secretary, J. S. Mullins, Clark county; treasurer, George K. Mitchell, Henry county; executive committee, Zack P. Lusby, Scott; George E. Mitchell, Henry; J. S. Mullins, Clark; E. J. Taylor, Oldham; W. T. Ballinger, Fayette; Neal Stivers, Pulaski; John R. Pfanz, Jefferson; G. R. Smith, Woodford.

Old Fashioned Campmeeting.

An old fashioned camp meeting will be held at the Blue Grass Park next Sunday conducted by the noted colored evangelist, Rev. R. Quarles, who has been aptly called "The Black Moody." There will be preaching, praying and singing and all who come will be assured of an enjoyable time.

R. QUARLES,

Large Raise in Assessments.

The State Board of Equalization has raised the assessment of Kentucky franchises from 25 per cent to 300 per cent. The largest increase was on the C. & O. Railroad, the raise on this property being nine times greater than last year. It is not known whether the railroad will contest the assessment in court or not.

Carpets and Rugs.

Come to the carpet and rug store if you want something nice at reasonable prices. Large stock to select from. Noshop-worn patterns, all new.

J. T. HINTON.

Boy Scouts.

Having formed a plan by which the great army of Boy Scouts of America will be drafted into service for the conservation of birds and animals, J. Quincy Ward, Executive Agent of the Kentucky Fish and Game Commission, has set to work to put the plan into operation.

He received a letter from G. H. Merriott, New York, Secretary of Editorial Board of the Boy Scouts of America, in which Merriott promises to furnish to Ward a list of the different troop leaders in the state. If the plan is successful in Kentucky it will be developed in other states.
